Schmitt, Wheelon Appointed to Intelligence Board

President Reagan announced Friday he will appoint former Sen. Harrison H. Schmitt, R-N.M., to the Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board.

Schmitt served as chairman of the subcommittee on legislation and rights of Americans of the Senate Intelligence Committee.

The president also said he was appointing Albert D. Wheelon, an executive with Hughes Aircraft Co., to the same board.

A resident of Los Angeles, Wheelon, 54, worked for the CIA from 1962 to 1966. He holds a doctorate from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

At Hughes Aircraft, Wheelon is the head of a group responsible for the development and production of communications satellites and other space vehicles.
